The community's support for The Village Market is greatly appreciated. Proceeds from the market assist in meeting our commitments.

Greetings friends of The Village, welcome to the last Edition of The Village Voice for 2013. The President and Committee of ERDO take the opportunity to wish all our Members and Friends a very Happy Festive Season.

Book Binding Workshops at The Village, The two workshops with Peter Lendon, bookbinder from Yarragon in Victoria were booked out, with participants travelling from across the State. Those who met with Peter were fascinated by his passion and immense knowledge, not only about the art of book binding but about history. We are already taking bookings for Peter's return to The Village in 2014. Ring Jane on 62577583 or email windsong@skymesh.com.au if you want to put your name down!

Bookstall Bylines

A big 'thank you' to all my regular and new customers who patronise the book stall. It is thanks to you that book sales at the October market reached a record high. As most of you are aware all monies raised assist in the cost of running 'The Village'. An added benefit to you, the customer, is that such a high turnover of books results in a greater variety of books being made available each month. Recommended books available this month include:

- Pillars of the Earth and the follow-up World Without End by

Ken Follett

- Disordered Minds by Minette Walters

- For the Term of His Natural Life by Marcus Clarke (that iconic book about a convict in Van Diemen's Land)

- An Unwinnable War by Karen Middleton (A book about Australia's involvement in Afghanistan); Karen is a political journalist, a newspaper columnist and radio commentator)

- Also a large selection of books for Healing H'Arts -Murdunna Dreaming Kris Schaffer & Dorothy Duncombe – Jackson who launched Kris's exhibition.

Kris has been Artist in Residence at The Village for the last six weeks. Her work has created great interest and been seen by many. Kris has also been funded through Communities for Children to run workshops at The Village, for children in the area. The children have loved having Kris at The Village and often have dropped in to say hello and find out what new has been added to her ever changing exhibition. Kris has been working with volunteers at The Village, planting a Bush Tucker Garden with plants funded by Mel Kelly through Natural Resource Management.

South Hobart Spinners return to The Village!

In September, this talented group returned to The Village to demonstrate and teach skills in spinning. Three spinning wheels have been donated to The Village by a member of the Spinners. We are so lucky to have this great connection. We all met at The international Spin at Bothwell in March!

November specials:

- All Wilbur Smith books are half the marked price.
- 20 cent book clearance – all for only 10 cents

Although plastic bags are no longer available we do have calico bags for sale at $1 each. These have been made and donated to The Village Market by two industrious Orford ladies. This kind gesture has been most appreciated - thank you to the ladies concerned. Happy reading and remember that Christmas is not far off and what better present can you give than a book (or two)!

Happy reading
Judy

The Boat Shed Comes to the Village

On behalf of The Spring Bay Community Boat Shed I would like to thank the members of the Village community for providing the opportunity to share in activities in the latter part of the year and for welcoming us so warmly.

Recently, The Shed has been undertaking our Outreach Programme of community involvement and using the opportunity to display vessels from our small wooden boat collection has been a very important and very successful part of this approach.

Making a contribution to a Men and Boys Workshop at the beginning of November emphasised the benefits of co-operation. Shed members were enthusiastically involved in the successful operation of workshop presentations and in catering for the gathering as well.

Many thanks, to Jane and Tom for suggesting Shed participation and fostering further connections through this event. The positive feedback resulting from this experience will undoubtedly bring about further cooperative ventures.

The Village provides a wonderfully supportive resource for our community in many ways. Boat Shed members look forward to strengthening our connections with the Village as we share very similar social objectives.

Wishing all Village members the very best for the Festive Season.
Happy days—David Gatenby

Making Small Boats

On Sunday 3rd November a free day, funded by Communities for Children, was held at The Village. Boys and men had a great day making model boats with David Gatenby. A wonderful pizza lunch was provided by Christine Remington ably assisted by Pat & Di from the Spring Bay Community Shed. Garry Sharp, from Rural Alive & Well, joined in the fun.
